

Adding Video Clips to Chalk & Wire
[Using iMovie]

Uploading video to Chalk & Wire using a Macbook

1. Record Video Footage
 - a. No student faces should be visible
 - i. Legal requirements
 - ii. Back of heads, profiles, and voices are allowed
 - b. Recording Device
 - i. Flip Video Cameras work best
 1. Available from Media Services Desk
 - ii. Digital cameras or other digital video cameras may also be used
 - iii. Do not use an iPad, iPhone, or iPod Touch
 1. More difficult to convert
2. Upload Footage onto a Mac Computer
 - a. Plug flip camera into Mac
 - i. Close out of all flip camera related popups
 - b. Open iMovie program
 - i. Choose video camera icon from middle left side
 - ii. Program will find all available video from Flip to upload
 1. Select the clips you want
 2. Click import
 3. Name your event when prompted by iMovie
3. Edit/Prepare Video Clip in iMovie
 - a. Imported video appears in events pane, usually the bottom pane
 - b. Select one 10-15 second clip you want to use using the yellow handle bars
 - c. Drag selection into the projects panel usually the top pane
 - d. Change the name of this project to something descriptive
 - e. EXTRA: use the text feature on iMovie to write what part of the assignment is being covered directly on top of/before the video clip
4. Export Video Clip
 - a. Click "Share" on the top of iMovie screen
 - b. Select "Export using Quicktime"
 - c. "Export: Movie to MPEG-4"
 - d. Save the clip to the desktop
5. For Multiple Clips from the Same Footage
 - a. In iMovie, delete previous clip from the top workspace
 - i. This piece will remain in the bottom portion for future use
 - b. Close a new 10-15 second clip
 - c. Repeat the editing, exporting, and uploading steps from above (steps 3-4)
 - d. Make sure you change the name for each project
6. Upload Video Clip to Chalk & Wire
 - a. Add video clip to desired page using the same process as for any new file (cloud upload icon)
 - b. Insert text blurb next to video to explain what part of the assignment is being

Adding Video Clips to Chalk & Wire
[Using iMovie]

covered

- i. Only necessary if you did not do step 3E.
- c. After the page is selected and graded, comments from your professor will appear with a timestamp under the “Work,” “My results” tabs at the top of the C&W screen

Questions? E-mail edtechteam@hope.edu